Watch this Space: COVID-19

Challenging times!!

We are mindful that things change quickly and we will provide updates with any changes or alternative options via our social media pages and on the website.

We will be following COVID safe procedures at our on property events, and encouraging:

- Maintaining social distancing
- Hand Hygiene available
- If unwell and unable to attend, please contact Richard to discuss alternative arrangements
- Keep people attending to only those who need to be there
- For those living in Victoria, more information on Cross Border travel exemptions can be found here: <https://www.covid-19.sa.gov.au/restrictions-and-responsibilities/travel-restrictions>
- Apply for a Cross Border pass at least a week prior to the sale to ensure there are no delays: <https://www.police.sa.gov.au/online-services/cross-border-travel-application>

We hope you are all keeping well and thinking of those who are at risk during these times.

Keep washing your hands, keep your distance, cover any coughs and keep things clean!

Classing Available

Richard is available to all existing clients who would like assistance with classing their ewes in the coming season.

Please contact Richard directly to discuss further – 0428854759.

Vale - Alison Halliday

With a heavy heart, we advise that our beloved Mum & Grandma, Alison Halliday passed away peacefully on the 12th of June aged 85 years.

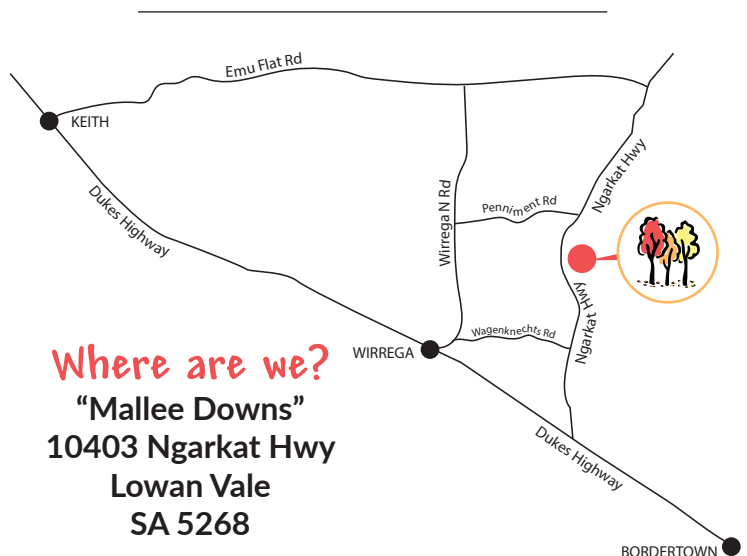

She lived a full life, loved her golf and loved to be involved at shearing and ram sale time.

She was renowned for her carrot cake and sausage rolls.

RIP Grandma.
